Extracts from the Designs Act 2003

Section 73 Infringement proceedings

- (1) The registered owner of a registered design may bring proceedings against another person alleging that the person has infringed the registered design.
- (2) Infringement proceedings may be brought in a prescribed court or in another court that has jurisdiction in relation to the proceedings.
- (3) However, infringement proceedings may not be brought under subsection (1) until:
 - (a) the design has been examined under Chapter 5; and
 - (b) a certificate of examination has been issued.
- (4) If a person files an application under section 21 for registration of a design as a result of the operation of section 55, the person may only bring infringement proceedings in respect of infringements of the design occurring after the date on which the application was filed under section 21.

Section 77 Application for relief from unjustified threats

- (1) If a person is threatened by another person (the respondent) with infringement proceedings, or other similar proceedings, in respect of a design, an aggrieved person (the applicant) may apply to a prescribed court, or to another court that has jurisdiction to hear and determine the application, for:
 - (a) a declaration that the threats are unjustified; and
 - (b) an injunction against the continuation of the threats; and
 - (c) the recovery of damages sustained by the applicant as a result of the threats.
- (2) A threat mentioned in subsection (1) may be by means of circulars, advertisements or otherwise.
- (3) If a certificate of examination has not been issued in respect of a design, a threat to bring infringement proceedings, or other similar proceedings, in respect of the design is an unjustified threat for the purposes of this section.
